Detailed Explanatory Table for the CPD Scheme (Applicable 1 July 2014 to 30 June 2016)

No	Summary	Particulars
Note 1	Criteria for accreditation	Activities that allow the CPD points to be obtained are required to be CPD accredited. The criteria for accreditation include: (1) The activity relates to the immediate/long-term educational development of Members; (2) The activity meets the standards and requirements stipulated in this CPD Guidelines; and (3) The activity deals primarily with matters related to the practice of law and the legal profession. The calculation of CPD points shall exclude time allocated for opening/closing ceremonies, breaks, meals, receptions, question-and-answer sessions and sporting activities.
Note 2	Pupils in chambers are required to obtain a minimum of 8 CPD points before they are admitted to the Malaysian Bar.	CPD points obtained during pupillage cannot be carried forward. New Members will have to obtain the remaining CPD points on a prorated basis in the year that they are admitted to the Malaysian Bar.
Note 3	Participation in activities for a minimum of 60 minutes will be awarded with one CPD point. If the activities are conducted for less than 60 minutes, no CPD points will be awarded.	The number of CPD points to be awarded shall be based on the contact hours of the training session, and shall not include time allocated for opening/closing ceremonies, breaks, meals, receptions, question-and-answer sessions and sporting activities.
Note 4	Members are allowed to carry forward a maximum of 5 CPD points obtained from the current CPD cycle to the next cycle of the CPD Scheme.	The onus shall be on Members to inform Bar Council at the end of each CPD cycle of the CPD Scheme.
Note 5	Eligibility for CPD points.	CPD points assigned to the activities that are organised by Bar Council/State Bar Committees will not be awarded to Members who arrive more than 15 minutes late, are not present throughout the duration, or leave before the scheduled end.
Note 6	Members are required to maintain their own records of CPD points. Bar Council will track Members' CPD points based on the activities that are within the knowledge of Bar Council/State Bar Committees.	Bar Council will maintain its own records of Members' CPD points. While Members might be provided with information about the status of their CPD points for each CPD cycle of the CPD Scheme, they should not rely on it exclusively as it merely serves as a guide.
