The Bar Council Criminal Law Committee ("CLC") is organising a seminar that will provide an overview of matters on tax risk management for criminal lawyers.

The seminar will cover the following issues:

- What are tax deductible expenses and what can I claim?
- When and how does the "tax man" (tax collector) conduct tax audit and investigation?
- What should a lawyer do when the "tax man" calls?
- What pitfalls should I avoid when managing my tax affairs?
- What is a capital statement and how do I prepare one?
- What is the difference between tax mitigation, tax avoidance, and tax evasion?
- What is the "tax man"'s authority and what are my rights as a taxpayer?
